PREPOSITIONS OF TIME

Do you know the meaning of the days of the week?

- Sunday: The English noun Sunday derived sometime before 1250 from sunedai, which itself developed from Old English (before 700) Sunnandæg (literally meaning "sun's day"

- Monday: In Judaism and Islam Mondays are considered auspicious days for fasting. The Didache warned early Christians not to fast on Mondays to avoid Judaizing, and suggests Wednesdays instead. In Judaism the Torah is read in public on Monday mornings.

- Tuesday: The name Tuesday derives from the Old English "Tiwesdæg" and literally means "Tiw's Day". n the Nahuatl language, Tuesday is Huītzilōpōchtōnal

- Wednesday: The name is a calque of the Latin dies Mercurii "day of Mercury".

- Thursday: The name is derived from Old English Þūnresdæg and Middle English Thuresday, which means "Thor's day

- Friday: In some workplaces workers wear less formal attire on Fridays, known as Casual Friday or Dress-Down Friday. In other countries, (see workweek and weekend) Friday is the first day of the weekend, with Saturday the second. In Saudi Arabia, Afghanistan and Iran.

- Saturday: In Nepal Saturday is last day of the week and is the only official weekly holiday

PREPOSITIONS OF TIME
At	In	On
Hours	Sections of the day	Days of the week
Example: at seven o'clock	Example: in the afternoon	Example: on Saturday
Public holidays	Months	Dates
Example: at Christmas	Example: in august	Example: on July 22nd
The following words: night/midnight/noon	Seasons
Example: at night	Example: in spring
Weekend	Years
Example: at weekend	Example: in 1987
"the end" "the moment"	Century
Example: at the end, at the moment	Example: in the 90's century
	Duration
	Example: in five hours
Ago	By	During
How far it happened (in the past)	Not later than a special time	Through the whole of a period of time
Example: 20 years ago	Example: by Friday	Example: During the vacations
For	Since	Until
Period of time	Point of time	No later than a special time
Example: for two weeks	Example: since July	Example: until tomorrow
To
Time of the day
Example: 5 minutes to 4 (3:55)		