

A MAKEOVER STORY

A New Look, A New Start

Last year, Daniel didn't feel confident about his appearance.

He wore the same clothes every week and never changed his hairstyle. He didn't like shopping, and he didn't think his style was important.

Recently, Daniel has decided to change his look. He wanted to feel better about himself and make a good impression at university. First, he went to a barber and cut his hair. Then, he bought some new clothes that looked more modern and professional.

At first, Daniel felt nervous about the change. He wasn't sure if people would like his new style. However, when he arrived at class, his friends were surprised.

"Wow, you look different!" one of them said. "I like your new haircut. It really suits you," another friend added.

Daniel smiled. He has received many compliments since then, and he feels more confident now.

He realized that the makeover didn't only change his appearance — it has changed how he feels about himself.

1. How did Daniel feel last year?

Daniel didn't feel confident about his appearance last year.

2. What changes did he make?

He cut his hair and bought new, more modern and professional clothes.

3. How did his friends react?

His friends were surprised and gave him compliments. They said he looked different and liked his new haircut.

4. How does Daniel feel now?

Daniel feels more confident and happier now.