

Conversation Strategy: Why don't you...? , I think you should..., I think I'm...

Pay attention to the patterns (in blue color) used to give suggestions to each problem. Observe that in the first and second case the form of the verb SIMPLE FORM, and in the third it is in -ING FORM.

Problem: "I can't fix my computer!"

Use the verb
in simple form

I think you should get some help.

Problem: "I can't stand this headache."

Use the verb
in simple form

Why don't you take an aspirin?

Conversation Strategy: Why don't you...? , I think you should..., I think I'm...

Problem: "I can't read this!"

Use the verb
in -ing form

I think I'm bringing a lamp!

