

Possessive Nouns/Whose

Anna, Jules and John are very good friends! They are getting ready for a trip to study in a university in a foreign country.

Look at their suitcases and try to guess the following!

In your opinion...

The word Whose asks for the specific owner (a person who possesses) of a thing.

Whose suitcase is number 1?

a) It's Anna's. b) It's Jules'. c) It's John's.

Whose suitcase is number 2?

a) It's Anna's. b) It's Jules'. c) It's John's.

Whose suitcase is number 3?

a) It's Anna's. b) It's Jules'. c) It's John's.

Possessive Nouns/Whose

These are the correct answers! Look at the way you can simplify them.

(With the name + 's)

(With possessive adjectives)

(With possessive pronouns)

Suitcase number 1 is John's.

It's his suitcase.

It's his.

Suitcase number 2 is Anna's.

It's her suitcase.

It's hers.

Suitcase number 3 is Jules's.

It's her suitcase.

It's hers.

Look at the table below and complete the possessive adjectives (with examples of belongings) and possessive pronouns lists with the previous examples given.

Possessive adjectives (They are preceded by the object of possession).	Possessive pronouns (Do not need to be followed by the object of possession because it is implicit in the context)
My suitcase	Mine
Your bag	Yours
Our tickets	Ours
Their classroom	Theirs
_____ sunglasses	_____
_____ camera	_____
Its food	Its